Kim Jabbar is grateful for the privilege of facilitating for FranklinCovey for over twenty-five years. She loves sharing life-changing principles and hearing the transformation they are making in people's lives, teams, families and organizations. Her clients have included a cross-section of industries including pharmaceutical, healthcare, manufacturing, banking and finance, retail, education and government. Kim has twenty-five years' experience in the productivity and personal effectiveness realm and over fifteen years in the diversity and leadership realms. She has a bachelor of business administration in marketing and communication. Participants love Kim's practical, application-focused facilitation and leave feeling equipped and motivated to apply what they have learned.
