Senior Consultant with FranklinCovey

Natalie Brown is a skilled human capital consultant who recently joined FranklinCovey in a senior consultant role. She is fascinated by the power of personal transformation within herself and those around her. Before coming to FranklinCovey she was a facilitator and executive coach for 15 years after over a decade with Accenture in their Change Management Organization. She has had the opportunity to practice her craft globally and is humbled to have engaged with amazing clients in more than 20 countries. Natalie earned her M.B.A. from The Smith School of Business in Maryland, has coach certification through the Center for Executive Coaching, and is a proud alumna of Hampton University.
