HIGHLIGHTS

- 15,000 plus days facilitating FranklinCovey workshops
- 2 children launched and loving life
- Consistently one of the top utilized consultants at FranklinCovey
- 34 years happily married to another FranklinCovey consultant
- 2,000 people certified to deliver 7 Habits

Deb Hauck is one of the most experienced consultants at FranklinCovey. She supports leaders committed to developing cultures that get stellar, sustainable results. She excels at coaching, facilitating groups, and working with intact teams. Although the majority of the clients she works with are senior leaders, she is known for her ability to connect with people at all levels of the organization. The majority of her clients work in the public sector and include all four branches of the military. She is known as a trainer's trainer, often developing the capacity of internal facilitators to increase their effectiveness. She is frequently called on to develop and customize leadership curriculum. A significant amount of Deb's work is international. Deb is a regular member of FranklinCovey's President's Club, which honors her contribution to her clients.
