

Senior Consultant

Ashley Seeley

Broomfield, Colorado

Ashley has built a career partnering with organizations to maximize people initiatives and catalyst organizational results, as well as coaching leaders and executives to define, develop and leverage their strengths to achieve extraordinary success. With over 20 years of experience directly in leadership and organizational development, talent management, and coaching, Ashley has proven approaches, methodologies, and tools to benefit global leaders and organizations. She assists leaders in uncovering and maximizing their unique contribution. She believes when people are fully engaged, they can bring their individual experiences, education, skills, talents and perspectives to elevate organizations.

Ashley has worked with business leaders across industries including Technology, Finance, Government, Health Care, Hospitality, Education, Engineering, Aerospace, Aviation, Analytics, Cyber, Military, Communications and small businesses. She has facilitated FranklinCovey content for over 14 years and enjoys working with individual contributors to executive leaders.

Education & Certifications

- B.S. Sociology & Psychology - Colorado State University
- M.S. Consulting (Organizational) Psychology - Alliant International University
- Ph.D. Consulting (Organizational) Psychology - Alliant International University
- Stakeholder Centered Coaching, Certified Group and Team Coach, Hogan Assessments, MBTI, FIRO-B, TKI, DiSC, CPI

What learners say about Ashley...

"Ashley was engaging, energetic and kept the material lively. Ashley used many effective techniques to engage the group and accept the various inputs she received without bias! She was thorough, articulate and knew the material like the back of her hand."

"Ashley was fabulous! Her presentation style was fun and upbeat, which helped to draw out participation from the attendees. She encouraged questions and provided good feedback on practical exercises to consolidate understanding."

Highlights

Over 1,000 hours of coaching to more than 300 leaders

Experienced facilitator in matrixed and cross-functional organizations

Worked with all 6 military branches and hundreds of government leaders

Facilitated classes to participants in over 35 countries

Married with 3 amazing children
