

Senior Consultant

Dave Green

San Francisco, California

One of our most active virtual and live delivery consultants, Dave Green recently celebrated 20 years with FranklinCovey. Based in Northern California, his many clients report higher productivity, profitability, and engagement from his work. He introduced virtual “webinar” technology to FranklinCovey and delivers many virtual trainings yearly, along with great live, front-of-the-room delivery. Passionate about interaction and real-world applicability in training, several of Dave’s clients have used him regularly for more than 10 years.

Dave’s BA is from UC Berkeley. Then came two senior management positions with large consulting organizations. At FranklinCovey he has been a Lead Consultant for 5 years and Subject Matter Expert in Productivity, Management, and Virtual Learning. “Dave’s reputation here is so strong that FranklinCovey courses fill and go to wait list the very first day we list them” reports one of his regular clients.

Dave’s clients represent many Fortune 500 and 100 organizations including those in technology, energy, pharma and science, finance, health care, and government.

Education & Certifications

- B.A. - University of California, Berkeley

What learners say about Dave...

“So interactive! Kept my attention. The time flew by. Please come teach my organization to do virtual communication as well as you do.”

“Dave was awesome, knowledgeable, passionate and sincere...he was also human.”

“Dave was a pleasure to listen to and he was engaging and provided wonderful information.”

Highlights

---

Chairman’s Club for 10 years. First Consultant to receive the Summit Award

---

Served on the California Governor’s Task Force for Training and Development

---

Faculty at UC Berkeley’s Business School. The class he designed is still required of all MBA’s

---

Developed our time productivity courses using MS Outlook and Google

---

Took his wife to Europe on their 2nd date. She married him. 2 grown daughters

---