

Senior Consultant

David Washington

Canton, Michigan

David Washington has a passion for coaching and developing leaders. David is a results-driven professional with over 25 years of experience in leadership development, executive marketing/brand management, public speaking, and business consulting. He has worked in the automotive, pharmaceutical, communications, non-profit, consulting, and marketing industries.

Prior to coming to FranklinCovey, David was the Senior Trainer, Coach and Consultant with the North American Mission Board, in the Metropolitan Detroit Region. David has also started, led and grown three non-profit companies from the ground. David has worked with all levels of leadership and holds facilitator, coaching and training certifications from the North American Mission Board and FranklinCovey.

Education & Certifications

- B.A. Marketing - Cornerstone University
- M.A. Leadership - Liberty University
- Certified Leadership Coach - North American Mission Board

What learners say about David...

"David is a dynamic presenter and facilitator. He is very engaging and knows how to keep everyone engaged!"

"David was great at engaging us in conversation and integrating our examples throughout the course."

"David articulated the information very well. Gave examples and engaged heavily with the members of the seminar to enhance the experience."

Highlights

Published Author:
Storm Devotions (2009)

Has started three nonprofit organizations

Worked for 2 Fortune 500's: Ford Motor Company and Eli Lilly

Played Division 1 basketball at Iowa State and Toledo

Dad to six great kids ages 14-27
