

Senior Consultant

DeVerl Austin

Eagle, Idaho

Since starting with FranklinCovey in 1986, senior consultant, DeVerl Austin has worked successfully in many facets of the business in both national and international markets. Initially, he was director of the Stephen R. Covey and Associates Masters of Executive Excellence program that featured renowned speakers including Kenneth Blanchard, Tom Peters, and Stephen R. Covey. For eight years DeVerl was a top-ranked sales executive and sales team leader. He spent five years as a senior consultant coaching and training many executives representing Fortune 500 companies. He was managing director for the Mid-Atlantic region in the United States and then regional vice president of the Americas and Southeast Asia.

Highlights

Employee #14 at Stephen R. Covey and Associates

Specialized in working with executive teams and senior leaders

20 years of experience managing and leading, including running a P&L

Married 30+ years to his wife, Lynette; adult son Connor and teenage daughter Emily

Recently moved from Northern VA to Boise, ID to enjoy the great outdoors

Education & Certifications

- B.S. International Relations – Brigham Young University w/ Spanish minor

What learners say about DeVerl...

"Excellent instructor; kept a great pace; answered every participant's questions and was extremely knowledgeable. Great facilitator!"

"DeVerl kept me engaged all day; his message was easy to understand and stayed on point. I enjoyed his personal stories - made him and his topic(s) relatable."

"Terrific presentation, facilitation, and listening skills. He is a personable, friendly presenter."