

Senior Consultant

Deb Hauck

Lafayette, Colorado

Deb Hauck is one of the most experienced consultants at FranklinCovey. She supports leaders committed to developing cultures that get stellar, sustainable results. She excels at coaching, facilitating groups, and working with intact teams. Although the majority of the clients she works with are senior leaders, she is known for her ability to connect with people at all levels of the organization. Deb facilitates work sessions and coaches leaders in several sectors including Energy and Healthcare. Over half of her clients are Public Sector and she works with all four branches of the military.

She is known as a trainer's trainer, often developing the capacity of internal facilitators to increase their effectiveness. She is frequently called on to develop and customize leadership curriculum. A significant amount of Deb's work is international. She is a frequent member of FranklinCovey's President's Club, which honors the highest performing consultants.

Highlights

15,000 plus days facilitating FranklinCovey workshops

Consistently one of the top utilized consultants at FranklinCovey

2,000 people certified to deliver 7 Habits

35+ years happily married to another FranklinCovey consultant

2 children launched and loving life

Education & Certifications

- B.S. Human Services – University of Tennessee – Phi Beta Kappa
- M.S. Preventative Medicine – University of Colorado Health Sciences
- Graduate of Coaches Training Institute
- Graduate of Group Process – National Training Lab Staff
- Completion of Group Process with M. Scott Peck

What learners say about Deb...

"Deb is an outstanding facilitator and coach. She was professional and patient with us. She has a learning approach rather than judging. She is highly skilled in explaining complex topics using methods for all to understand."

"Deb did a great job with all aspects of facilitation -- she's clearly well-versed in the subject matter and fired up some really great group discussions."