

Senior Consultant

Kim Jabbar

Philadelphia, PA

Kim Jabbar is grateful for the privilege of facilitating for FranklinCovey for over twenty-nine years. She loves sharing life-changing principles and hearing the transformation they are making in people's lives, teams, families, and organizations.

Her clients have included a cross-section of industries including pharmaceutical, healthcare, manufacturing, banking and finance, retail, education, and government. Kim has twenty-nine years' experience in the productivity and personal effectiveness realm and over twenty years in the diversity and leadership realms.

Participants love Kim's practical, application-focused facilitation and leave feeling equipped and motivated to apply what they have learned.

Education & Certifications

- B.B.A (Bachelor of Business Administration)

What learners say about Kim...

"Kim has an exceptional talent in facilitating Covey - with true insight and lived experience. It's so evident that she LIVES the habits. I think she is amazing!!"

"Kim facilitated the training well with engaging questions, an up-beat spirit & an enthusiasm to support us."

"Kim is a very skilled facilitator. She brought personal examples to the session, encouraged dialogue among the participants, and was insightful and helpful in allowing our team to self-discover the important points in the materials."

Highlights

---

Facilitated programs in 41 states and 3 countries

---

Joined FranklinCovey in 1993

---

Earned FranklinCovey's Chairman Club Award

---

Married 28 years with 3 amazing children

---

Price is Right Bonkers and Showcase winner

---