Marché is a skilled consultant who has a way of capturing clients with a balance of knowledge and people skills. Formerly manager of Employee Retention at a major health system, she understands the responsibilities and influence of effective leadership and also has a grasp on the value and impact of individual contributors. She believes leveraging the contributions of both and understanding the human part of implementing strategy is what enables organizations to thrive. In the most engaging way, she uses work sessions to enlighten the hearts and minds of clients so that they are inspired to do what's required to reach their goals.

Marché has been with FranklinCovey for over 15 years. She has been the subject matter expert for 7 Habits of Highly Effective People and is currently on the Consultant Coaching Team that supports and reinforces the quality of our world class consultants. She is also a co-author of FranklinCovey's upcoming book on leading change.

As someone who is passionate about people, she brings the energy of coaching to every session and has a grounded, yet professional style of delivery. Her work spans numerous industries including healthcare, financial, insurance, pharmaceutical, grocery chains, oil and gas, and consumer goods.
