

Senior Consultant

Renée Tomlinson

Draper, Utah

Highlights

Since 2008 Renée has facilitated nearly 600 online sessions

Renée has delivered over 1500 consulting days at FranklinCovey

Renée has delivered sessions in 48 US states and in all Canadian provinces

1200: the number of people Renee has certified to facilitate "The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People"

Renée is a wife, mother, grandmother, and fledgling golfer

During her nearly 30 years with FranklinCovey, Renée Tomlinson has cultivated the ability to inspire confidence and build competence so that clients can achieve their worthwhile goals. Renée has served as a manager and an individual contributor in key, professional assignments for educational and Fortune 500 companies, and typically works at the cross-section of for- and non-profit organizations. Renée served on the implementation start-up team for FranklinCovey's All Access Pass®, putting deep content knowledge and delivery expertise to work. She also has experience and expertise in communication, consulting, training, and organizational development. Renée graduated with honors from the University of Wisconsin in Eau Claire, earning a B.A. in speech and broadcast journalism, and is a member of FranklinCovey's prestigious President's Club.

Education & Certifications

- B.A. Speech and Broadcast Journalism, Cum Laude
- Inside Out Coaching Model, Facilitator Certification
- William Bridges Transition Management, Facilitator Certification

What learners say about Renée...

"Renée was inclusive and thoughtful with discussions, questions, and immediate response/feedback. Very welcoming, present, and structured in approach. She is excellent."

"Renée does a fantastic job of getting the ideas across and people engaged. She is so personable and upbeat."

"Renée is the best! She is calm, collected and very knowledgeable in this - I wouldn't take this course with anyone else!"