

Senior Consultant

Gary McGuey

Canandaigua, New York

Gary McGuey began his career with Franklin Covey in 1998. Clients describe Gary as a dynamic, energetic speaker who brings the rare mix of knowledge, humor and wisdom to each client engagement. "Learn it, Live it, Give it!" is the message Gary conveys to his audiences. Through a variety of hands-on, interactive sessions, participants are encouraged and challenged to continue the process of leadership development.

With his expertise and his keen sense of humor, he quickly creates a climate of trust. He is a sought-after keynote speaker on topics related to personal development, mission/vision, effective communication, time management and life/work balance.

Gary has worked extensively in both the public and private sectors in the United States and Canada. Gary's clients represent a variety of organizations including several Fortune 500 businesses. Gary spent 6 months working as an Executive Coach at the White House during the Bush administration. He is passionate about helping organizations intentionally develop a principle-centered work environment that will help clients improve both their professional and personal lives. He is a highly sought-after keynote speaker on topics related to leadership, culture, trust, and mission/vision.

Highlights

Joined FranklinCovey in 1998

Has facilitated in all 50 states and 10 Canadian provinces

Executive Coach at the White House (Bush Administration)

Proud recipient of FranklinCovey's 3000 delivered days club

Beautiful family, including 4 children, 3 grandchildren, 2 dogs and a cat

Education & Certifications

- B.S. Kinesiology
- M.S. Education
- International Coach Federation (ICF) Certified

What learners say about Gary...

"Gary had great energy - kept the team active - had strong understanding of the material - made it fun!"

"Gary was amazing! Super nice and very engaging. Really enjoyed hearing him talk!"

"Gary was phenomenal. He was relatable and very practical in his approach. This was the best training I have ever had as an administrator! I was forced to really think and reflect during this training."