

Executive Coach

Moira (Missy) McNabb

Sarasota, Florida

Driven by an insatiable curiosity regarding the intersection of human capital and business, Missy has meticulously charted her 35+ year career journey. Armed with a law background, albeit non-practicing, she infuses her talent development acumen with a wide spectrum of business experience.

At the forefront of her role as a talent development expert, Missy has wielded her expertise for Fortune 50 giants and small non-profits alike, spanning an array of industries including aerospace, consumer products, finance, government, healthcare, and more. Her passion is enabling leaders and teams to achieve their potential. Missy is known for her ability to cultivate genuine connections and nurturing enduring relationships with her clients. Missy's executive coaching propels her clients and their businesses towards growth and longevity.

Having served a number of C-suite leaders (CEO, CFO, General Counsel, Chief Audit Officer, Chief Compliance Officer, Chief Operations Officer), Missy is comfortable having a seat at the executive table. Her executive coaching is highly praised by her clients: how she listens carefully, asks insightful questions, and provides valuable resources that help them grow faster. In a changing world where expert guidance is crucial, Missy stands out as a strong support.
