

Executive Coach

Keith Ivory Millner

Atlanta, Georgia

An entrepreneur, corporate athlete, international traveler, author and servant leader, Keith is a renaissance man. After a three-decade career in corporate America in multiple senior executive roles, he transitioned to an executive coach. Keith has enabled hundreds of entrepreneurs, corporate, civic, and religious leaders to PERFORM BETTER. SMARTER. FASTER

Keith's personal mission is to be a Change agent. Equipping people with the mental, spiritual, and physical tools they need to excel. Keith's community leadership includes serving as Chairman of the Board, 100 Black Men of Atlanta: Board of Directors The 100 Black Men of America and co-chair of the 100BMoA's Leadership Institute and Board of Directors, ONBOARD. He is an alum of Leadership Atlanta Class of 2018.

A former collegiate quarterback and fitness enthusiast, we see a testament to Keith's adventurous spirit. An avid golfer, he also boasts an impressive track record of completing full and half marathons. His conquests include ascending the formidable peaks of Mount Kilimanjaro and The Grand Tetons, navigating the exhilarating rush of Class V rapids, and even exploring the wonders of the Great Barrier Reef through diving. Keith's remarkable journey reflects his commitment to continuous growth, holistic excellence, and leaving an indelible mark on every sphere he touches.
