

Senior Consultant

Annette York

Salt Lake City, Utah

Annette York has over 33 years of experience in developing leaders, creating cultures, and helping individuals reach their potential. In both the government and private sectors, Annette is sought after because of her vast experience with leaders at all levels and her facilitative style. She creates an environment of learning that encourages each learner to apply principles and skills to their own unique circumstances. Annette has been directly involved with the implementation of FranklinCovey's All Access Pass® and is known as one of FranklinCovey's foremost virtual learning experts. She has facilitated thousands of hours of both in person and virtual content across many training areas. Annette spends countless hours volunteering in her community and is deeply passionate about health and wellness as it affects personal effectiveness.

Highlights

Received FranklinCovey's Chairman's Club award multiple times

Eight fulfilling roles within FranklinCovey

Facilitated to 25,000+ webinar participants

Co-owner of a yoga studio and instructor

Six international sailing trips

Education & Certifications

- M.S. Professional Communication – Westminster College

What learners say about Annette...

"Annette was amazing! Very personable and engaging, and great real-life experiences that added value to the training."

"Annette was one of the best facilitators I have had, ever! She's engaging, including, not forcing attendees to participate. However, she makes you want to participate!"

"Annette's communication was top notch. I appreciate her willingness to get participants to provide insight."